Changes in the regulatory environment and post-closing events

#	Changes in Q4
1	Purchase the 14.88% of Fundamenta: On 11 November 2024, the Bank has signed a share purchase agreement with Generali Biztosító Zrt. in order to purchase a total of 14.88% stake of Fundamenta Lakáskassza Lakás-takarékpénztár Zrt. The closing of the transaction is expected in first quarter in 2025, subject to obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals.
2	The Government has developed a 21-point economic policy action plan with the aim of achieving higher economic growth in 2025. The effect of these can be considerable primarily on consumption, the real estate market and the construction industry. Many points of the program require the cooperation of the financial sector, such as subsidised worker's loan, rural home renovation loan, modifications of the SZÉP card product, interest cap on housing loan, or the temporary usage of voluntary pension fund volumes for housing purposes as far as households are concerned; in the entrepreneurial/corporate segment, the Sándor Demjén program was introduced, of which the main elements are the "1+1" SME investment revitalization program, a capital program supporting investments and competitiveness of SMEs, a program supporting foreign investment, interest rate reduction for investment-type constructions of the Széchenyi Program.
3	The MNB's Financial Stability Council extended the green capital requirement discount programs granted to credit institutions until the end of December 2026; further annual extensions will be decided on an indicator system. From 31 January 2025, the range of exposures that can be included in the discount program will also be expanded.
4	In the case of baby support loan , the upper age limit is raised to 35 years effective from 1 January 2025, and several other easing steps were also introduced with regards to the loan.
5	Tax burden on the banking sector: in mid-November, the government made further decisions unfavourable to the banking sector. On the one hand, interest rate cap on housing loans that expired at the end of 2024 was extended again, by half a year; on the other hand, credit institutions' extra profit tax was also extended again until 2025, and measures were also taken to tighten the tax-deductibility of the increase in banks' holdings of government securities.

The maturity date of the Notes is 29 January 2030, the use of proceeds is general corporate purposes. The fixed interest rate of 5.250% per annum will be paid up to the optional redemption date of 29 January 2029. Moody's Investors Service Cyprus Ltd. has assigned a 'Ba2' rating to the Notes.
